Letter From Our President

Dear Valued Customer,

Thank you for your interest in OFS. In this fast-paced, ever-changing business environment companies need a partner who understands how to move freight across the country and around the world. As a service-oriented company, we are committed to providing the highest level of customer service and professionalism. With the help of our qualified staff, industry leading technology, and a large database of contracted carriers, we are able to make this happen.

At OFS, our staff has experience in all areas of the transportation industry. We are capable of handling any situation or special need you may have. In addition, we thoroughly screen every carrier before they handle a shipment for you. This combination is very important in providing unparalleled service and reliability.

After comparing our competitive prices, excellent service, and our experience, we think you will agree that OFS is the company to handle your freight.

If you have any questions or would like to find out how competitive our rates and services are, please contact us at (800) 284-2603 or visit us at www.onlinefreight.com. Thank you for considering OFS, and we look forward to building a long-term relationship with you.

Sincerely,

*Keith Burns

Why OFS:

OFS offers a wide variety of services to meet your transportation needs. From truckload freight to consolidation, LTL, multiple stops, specialized equipment, intermodal, warehousing, air, barge, and container freight. OFS can handle it for you.

With one of the largest databases of contracted carriers in the country and our unparalleled posting and notification technologies, we are able to cover your freight quickly using the most qualified carriers.

Our team of brokers and support staff work hard to make sure you know where your freight is at all times and what's happening with it. We know the "ins and outs" of the industry and can speak to the terminals, dispatchers, customs brokers and anyone else in the chain. This is invaluable knowledge when there is a problem or concern with a load. Whether you have one shipping person or an entire shipping department, OFS can help manage your company's transportation needs.

Air, Barge, and Container Freight

Call OFS to see how we can help with your air, barge or container freight needs.

Competitive Pricing

Having moved hundreds of thousands of shipments we can take advantage of volume pricing from carriers that an individual business would not be able to access. You can think of us as your own personal freight-buying group.

Commitment To Quality

Our employees are courteous and friendly and all of our contracted carriers are prescreened and OFS certified to insure that you get the quality you expect at an affordable price. We understand the importance of delivering your freight on time without damage by a driver who shows respect for you and your customers. That is why we only employ the best customer service people and why we only use carriers who also share our commitment to quality.

Experts In The Freight Industry

With locations in many regions throughout the country we know the nuances of moving freight in and out of each area. It is this broad coverage and expertise that sets us apart from many freight logistics companies who only have a local presence. Our customers look to us to be experts so they don't have to be.

Putting Technology To Work For You

At OFS we are focused on providing the best possible service to our customers. One way we accomplish this is to equip our people with the latest technologies to help them find trucks and process customer shipments in the fastest most cost effective ways. There are few companies in the freight industry with the same vision and commitment to technology.

A Higher Standard

We have built our company on high standards of honesty and integrity and we drive these values throughout our business. These are core principles to our success and shape our daily interactions.

Relationships Are Key

Everyone at OFS realizes the importance of having strong relationships with our customers. We enjoy forming long-lasting relationships and will work hard to earn your trust. We have many customers that have been with us for a long time and consider us friends as well as an invaluable business partner.
